

High-Protein Almond Butter & Raspberry Oatmeal Bars

These soft-baked oatmeal bars are naturally sweetened with ripe bananas and studded with juicy raspberries for bright flavor in every bite. Almond butter adds richness and a boost of protein, making the bars more satisfying than typical baked oatmeal snacks.

Ingredients

- 1¼ cups old-fashioned rolled oats
- ½ cup all-purpose flour
- ½ cup whole-wheat flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 3 ripe medium bananas
- ½ cup reduced-fat milk
- 2 large eggs
- 4 tablespoons unsalted almond butter, divided
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup fresh or frozen raspberries

Directions

Step 1

Preheat oven to 375°F. Generously coat an 8-inch square baking pan with cooking spray.

Step 2

Stir 1¼ cups oats, ½ cup all-purpose flour, ½ cup whole-wheat flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon cinnamon and ½ teaspoon salt together in a large bowl.

Step 3

Mash bananas in a medium bowl with a fork until mostly smooth. Add ½ cup milk, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons almond butter and 1 teaspoon vanilla; whisk until well combined.

Step 4

Add the banana mixture to the oat mixture and stir until fully combined. Let stand at room temperature for 10 minutes to allow the oats to soften. Gently fold in 1 cup raspberries.

Step 5

Spread the batter evenly in the prepared pan. Dollop the remaining 2 tablespoons almond butter over the top; swirl with a wooden pick or knife to create a marbled pattern.

Step 6

Bake until the top is golden and the center is just set, 22 to 25 minutes. Let cool in the pan on a wire rack for 15 minutes. Cut into 9 bars.

To make ahead

Refrigerate in an airtight container for up to 3 days.
