Ingredients

- 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 medium carrots, peeled and chopped (1 cup)
- 1 small yellow onion, chopped (½ cup)
- 2 medium stalks celery, chopped (½ cup)
- 2 medium cloves garlic, minced (about 2 teaspoons)
- 6 cups lower-sodium vegetable broth
- 1 (15-ounce) can no-salt-added chickpeas, rinsed
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon ground pepper
- 4 ounces whole-wheat rotini pasta (1¼ cups)
- 1 teaspoon salt-free Italian seasoning
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley

Directions

Step 1

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a large saucepan over medium-high heat. Add chopped carrots, onion and celery and minced garlic. Cook, stirring often, until the onion is translucent, 3 to 4 minutes.

Step 2

Stir in 6 cups broth, the rinsed chickpeas, $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon salt and $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon pepper. Bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to maintain a lively simmer; cook until the vegetables begin to soften, 6 to 7 minutes.

Step 3

Stir in 4 ounces rotini and 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning. Cook, uncovered, stirring occasionally, until the pasta is al dente, 7 to 8 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 1 tablespoon parsley.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I make the soup thicker?

If you prefer a thicker soup, lightly mash some of the chickpeas using the back of a spoon before adding the pasta.

Can I use a different type of pasta?

Of course. You can use whole-wheat pasta or regular. For soups like this one, it's best to stick with a short pasta like the rotini. Good alternates would be small shells or macaroni, orzo, ditalini or fusilli, or you can simply break up long, thin pasta into bite-size pieces.

How should I store and reheat leftovers?

Refrigerate the soup in an airtight container for up to 4 days. To reheat, warm it gently over medium heat on the stovetop, adding extra broth as needed. Microwaving in 30- to 60-second intervals is fine for single portions; just be sure to stir halfway through. Keep in mind that the pasta will continue to absorb broth, so it's a good idea to have extra broth on hand to thin it when reheating.

Can I freeze the soup?

Absolutely! For freezer storage, cook the soup without the pasta, then cool it completely before freezing for up to 2 months. When you're ready to serve, reheat the soup and add freshly cooked pasta. This prevents the pasta from turning mushy.

What pairs well with Chickpea Noodle Soup?

We highly recommend pairing it with a crusty bread to soak up every last drop of the flavorful broth. If you plan to eat a cup of soup, you might consider pairing it with salad like our Massaged Kale Salad, Basic Green Salad with Vinaigrette or Marinated Cherry Tomato Salad, or consider adding a sandwich like our Grilled Tuna Sandwich with Lemon–Chili Mayo, Grilled Cheese with Spinach & Tomato or Whole–Wheat Veggie Wrap.
